LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR

LYN: Next Door Commitment

Are you ready to make a commitment to love your neighbor next door? We have been focusing on loving our neighbors and now it is time for you to decide that you want to live as a good neighbor.

Making this commitment is important. Deciding something in advance will help us make the right decisions when an opportunity arises. We often have opportunities to get to know or to show love to our neighbors, but it is easy to ignore them. Make a commitment now that you will take advantage of those opportunities this year. You will be making a commitment to live like Jesus wants us to live.

We are asking you to visit www.lynproject.org/ commitment to record your commitment to love your neighbor next door.

The LYN Project web site (www.lynproject.org) is a great resource to help you with that commitment. You can sign up for weekly reminders and a monthly newsletter. You can also get ideas about how to identify, know, and love your neighbor. We hope you will use this resource as a way to help you keep your commitment to love your neighbor next door.

This week's lesson in the adult bible classes is "WHO IS MY NEIGHBOR?" In this lesson we will explore whom we should love as our neighbor. The scriptures teach that anyone in need is neighbor. In this lesson we will suggest we should start with the obvious "next door neighbors." We will work to identify who our next door neighbors are as the first step in our plan.

Remember from the last lesson that love is the power of God's Kingdom and now we should use that power on our next door neighbors. Consider John 13:34-35:

"A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another: just as I have loved you, you also are to love one another.

By this all people will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."

Spring Time!

Well hopefully we've made it through the cold winter as we anticipate more pleasant days than harsh. Consider this... perhaps it is in the transition from winter to spring that God is picturing the gospel narrative of Jesus who emerged from the darkness and chill of the grave to the bright radiance of resurrected glory. After all, the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus is the supreme story of history.

Why not also use nature to tell something of that story? God wants us to clue in to the fact that he is the true life giver and he is very creative in making his point.

So, as we see the new blooms and feel the warmth of a closer sun, we reflect on a gracious God who raised up his Son from death. Likewise we hope in a resurrection like his.

"Ask rain from the LORD in the season of the spring rain, from the LORD who makes the storm clouds, and he will give them showers of rain, to everyone the vegetation in the field" (Zechariah 10:1).

Prescription For Unhappiness

- Make little things bother you: don't just let them, make them!
- Lose your perspective of things, and keep it lost. Don't put first things first.
- Get yourself a good worry - one about which you cannot do anything but worry.
- Be a perfectionist: condemn yourself and others for not achieving perfection.
- Be right, always right, perfectly right all the time. Be the only one who is right, and be rigid about your rightness.
- Don't trust or believe people, or accept them at anything but their worst and weakest. Be suspicious. Impute ulterior motives to them.
- Always compare yourself unfavorably to others, which is the guarantee of instant misery.
- Take personally, with a chip on your shoulder, everything that happens to you that you don't like.
- Don't give yourself wholeheartedly or enthusiastically to anyone or to anything.
- Make happiness the aim of your life instead of bracing for life's barbs through a "bitter with the sweet" philosophy.
- Use this prescription regularly for a while and you will be guaranteed unhappiness.
