Most and Best

This week I ran across an interesting quote that I think is thought provoking. "If we love God most, we will love others best."

When he was asked "What is the greatest commandment?" Jesus responds by quoting the passage Jews would recite at every synagogue service, Deuteronomy 6:5 "You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might." That is really a pretty tall order.

If we really do love God, who created all of us and sent His Son to die for us on a cross, it is reasonable that we will love one another. If we love Him with all our heart, soul, and might, that means we are loving Him most. In turn, we should do our best to love our brothers and sisters. Loving God most will cause us to love others best.

This Sunday's topic is
"Does it Matter?"

"We hear many talk about "my truth" and "your truth," but does God have a truth? God has spoken and we must listen to Him, because He always tells the truth. Today we're exploring God's truth, and it matters!"
