Back to

It finally feels like covid season is coming to an end. Stores are going back to normal hours, restrictions are being lifted, and Church services are back to in person just like it should be. That begs the question: Is it back to normal, or is it something new? This is a question I have been thinking about for a while now. While life outside is returning back to normal somewhat, it feels like things are different this time around. With covid came adjustments to be able to continue to do the things we would always do, but with a twist. For
