“Only let us hold true to what we have attained” Philippians 3: 16. When the handle is pulled back, the ratchet strap will hold taut and won’t release its tension until the lever on the handle is tripped. Then the strap is useless for holding the load. The Lord’s church operates in much the same way. Perhaps it was a little need for rest that’s not promised to us in this life (Hebrews 4: 1-7). It could be that some of the workers who held the tension went to their rest or were arranged by God someplace else where He wanted them to be (1 Corinthians 12: 18). Maybe we were lulled to sleep by so much going so well for so long or mandatory isolation of the past year and a half threw us out of our routines that the lever was tripped
