Only 30 months (counting this month which is half over) until we can celebrate the 100th year of the church meeting on this property! In May 2024, we will have spent 52 years as the 36th Street Church of Christ and 48 years as the 34th Street Church of Christ and before that the Pleasant Street Church of Christ on the other corner as the “new building” dates to May 28, 1972.

Some among us remember the old building (plus additions) and many of the 8 full-time pulpit and 4 associate ministers (one who became a pulpit minister) who have served here since 1958. Of the 19 elders who have served since 1946, 9 are still members here, and 4 of those currently shepherd us. At the time of the construc-
