“Crushed for Our Iniquities”

by Doug Kashorek

“But he was pierced for our transgressions; he was crushed for our iniquities; upon him was the chastisement that brought us peace, and by his wounds we are healed” Isaiah 53:5.

If Gethsemane was the olive press, then Golgotha was the destroyer. The blood that began to flow in the garden as extreme sorrow burst capillaries and mixed with sweat ran freely from His pierced body on the cross. Our sins were punished in His flesh that hung upon the tree. When he was lifted up (John 3:14), he took our place in death, “becoming a curse for us” (Galatians 3:13) by lifting the curse from us. His wounds, which were meant to be ours, healed us.

He was fully God to be our Savior and fully man to be our sacrifice. “For there is one God, and there is one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus” (1 Timothy 2:5). In the incarnation, the second person of the Godhead “had to be made like his brothers in every respect” (Hebrews 2:17) in order to bear our sins at the crucifixion. Having perfectly submitted as a man to His Father at Gethsemane, God could be killed at Calvary—for you, for me.

And in such a terrible way! The word used here means to crumble, beat or break (in pieces), bruise, crush, or smite. In other words, the cross destroyed Jesus ... “for our iniquities.”

Here’s where Jesus did the work of salvation—in submission to His destruction. “He saved us, not because of works done by us in righteousness” (Titus 3:5). And so when we submit to death of our old selves in baptism and faithful living, we don’t work but are united with the crushing for our iniquities that Jesus endured for us so that we might live in submission to His will for our lives.

Have you submitted to His destruction in baptism and are living for His will?
