Why Study Romans?

by Doug Kashorek

A retired preacher in the Lord's church, my Uncle John, who baptized me into Christ twenty-nine years ago and helped perform my wedding eight days ago (perhaps some of you got to meet him), also got me started in ministry. While mentoring me, he said that Romans was a microcosm of the entire New Testament, and that if I understood it, then I'd understand God's entire plan of salvation. This was proved later when I came across "The Romans Road," a study that used just this epistle to teach the gospel.

Martin Luther preferred Romans to James, calling this letter "straw" as he believed it emphasized a works salvation, because he believed Romans supported the Reformation's "faith alone" doctrine. But ... Romans is full of references to obedience that results from faith, such as how grace is meant "to bring about the obedience of faith" (1:5) and how those who have been baptized "have become obedient to the heart" (6:17). This, of course, is what James is saying too, and so both inspired letters work nicely together.

So, in some ways, a deep and careful study of Romans will help you understand all of God's Word and will for us in Jesus, but it will also help us understand where many of our religious neighbors are coming from. You will be blessed by this journey that we start this morning that will bring us to the end of the year and won't want to miss a single class!

Thank You, All!

A few days before our ceremony, Angie and I recognized the efforts of so many who already have worked hard to make this coming Saturday (now past) wonderful! So many have also given us so many gifts and are traveling so far to make this new beginning of our lives so memorable. We can only imagine what the wedding will be like and how special today's reception for us in the MPR will be. So, thank you all for all that has been done already and for everything in the time ahead. Angie and I are so very blessed and love you all!

THANK YOU NOTES!!

A big thank you to Joe Carrico, John Garner, Jim Taylor, Mike O'Dell, and Mark Butterfield, who helped rearrange the furniture in the auditorium for the wedding and afterwards to prepare for Sunday services. We appreciate your help and willingness to help whenever needed.

Our church will be sending $1,000 to Kentucky for the Disaster Relief Fund. The elders stated that they wish they could do more, but major expenditures have occurred here, including roof repairs and the replacement of 2 air conditioners. The victims in the flood area remain in our thoughts and prayers.

- August 28—Angie and Doug want to continue the celebration of their wedding with so many whose lives have touched theirs! Accordingly, there will be a reception in the MPR TODAY, August 28, following morning services. Meats, dessert, and drinks will be provided. Please bring your favorite potluck dish, side, or salad and join in celebrating this lovely couple.
- September 3—There will be a “Donation Day” at the church, beginning at 10:00 am, for everyone to donate clean clothes, coats, and blankets. Socks are also needed for men, women, & children. Help would also be appreciated if you can sort and/or hang items. Please see Della Poling if you have any questions.
- September 10 (Saturday)—Wedding Shower for Abigail Martin and Wayde Shields. MPR, 1:00 pm. Hosted by Della Poling & Jessica Shields. The couple is registered with myregistry.com. If you (men & women) would like to participate in a “Money Tree”, please see Liz Hardman or Karen Kibble.

Thank you Dr. Michael Moss for the two sermons last Sunday. It was wonderful to see Mike and Ginny for the first time since their move to Tennessee. We hope you will come back “home” soon!!
