Happy Father's Day!

by Doug Kashorek

Saul may not have known that Samuel had anointed David king in place of him. What fueled his jealousy of the young musician was the love that God's people and God Himself had for the shepherd who had killed Goliath and was successful in battle. So, with the old idea of 'keeping your friends close but your enemies closer' Saul thought to make David his ... son-in-law?

But his motives were terrible. He first tried to wed his elder daughter to him, which would put him in the thickest frays, and in over his head David would die. When that didn't work, he offered Michal, who supposedly loved him, that "she might be a snare for him" and that he would be killed by the Philistines.

Saul was not a very good 'father' at all, and hopefully you've not had one as bad as him in your life. My own is still living and has always been there for me, especially when I lost my wife in 2020. Loving, knowledgeable, and actively involved in his family, for over fifty years I've been blessed with a wonderful dad! I also, though, know what it's like to lose a father as my late wife's dad, a father to me for three decades, passed away in March. And, completing the range of fathers, my new wife's dad is just as absent from my life as he has been from hers.

In turn, I have tried to be a good father to my own three children, their spouses, and two grandchildren—as well as to the many I have worked with of varying ages in various academic and church settings. In last week's lesson I spoke about the need for all of us to be fathers for those who follow.

A B.C. comic strip that I have kept over the years outlines these types and then concludes with "but if for some reason you don't have one, there's one on duty, all the time—up there." We all have a heavenly Father, who is perfect and loves each of us perfectly all the time.

In honor of Father's Day, we have set up a table in the foyer for members to share a picture memory of themselves with their father. We hope you will enjoy the photos as we honor & celebrate the men who influenced our Christian lives.

We began our 100th year in May, as we held our dedication service in May 1924. So, let's dedicate ourselves to prayer during the coming year: on ...
Sundays—pray for the assembling church & its future
Mondays—worship our Master who makes all possible
Tuesdays—lift up all teachers of His Word
Wednesdays—wisdom & work of our leaders
Thursdays—help for our youth & growth
Fridays—our fervor & influence for the gospel
Saturdays—lift up our ministries & tools that serve

THANK YOU to Judy Kibble for providing the fans that are now in the book holders on the back of the pews. Just another way to advertise our fast-approaching CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION!
