36th Street Church of Christ (Public Page)

36th Street Church of Christ (private Group) There's an age-old question about whether it's better to grow-up in the church where you are surrounded by godly people from a young age or better to discover God at a later age but after you've fallen into sin. The answer is both ... and neither, as each path has its pros and cons. A person going from baby to believer has certainly been protected but might never have developed a faith of his own, while the pioneer may have a fiery faith but struggles to overcome entrenched habits.

The real answer is that each person must seek God for himself—and this is harder to do with each successive generation. Just think of the sacrifices and long hours a person puts into a first generation business. The second generation who takes it over usually doesn't work as hard and coasts on their parent's success. The third, for whom the business means very little, takes what it can from it while it declines. The fourth often closes the doors.

We see this in David who fought to return the kingdom to God during Saul's reign. But in later years, though he went astray a bit, he remained a man after God's heart. Solomon had a great start to his forty-year reign and built the temple, but he left the ways of his father, David, by the end. And then came Reheboam, who foolishly leaned on his own understanding ... rather than having an abiding faith of his own.

Isaiah 55:6-8 says, "Seek the LORD while he may be found; call upon him while he is near; let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; let him return to the LORD, that he may have compassion on him, and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon. For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, declares the LORD."

The same is true for a church's life-cycle. From early societal struggles like today's, the 36th Street Church of Christ flourished through many decades that followed. Have we become Reheboams almost a century later?

BABY BASKET/DIAPER SHOWER

A "baby tote" has been set up in the foyer to place items in for baby Gracelynn as she will be coming home at the end of September. We were told that she will probably just be going into newborn sizes at this time. The tote will then be delivered by Patty Lemon to Gracelynn's grandparents (Patty's neighbor).

Mid-Ohio Valley Walk 4 Water sponsored by Healing Hands International will be held today at the Parkersburg City Park. Money raised will be used to drill water wells in underdeveloped countries and repair wells already drilled. Many people walk long distances to obtain water for their personal use. If you aren't able to walk Sept 10 at 2PM, you can give a contribution to Jim or Zenna Hall and we will turn it in for you.

According to 2 Samuel 12:1, who was the prophet God sent to David to tell him about his sin?

- A. Gad
- B. Bathsheba
- C. Nathan
- D. Uriah

Hey moms, dads, grandparents and KIDS! There is a new activity packet for school-age or younger children in the foyer on the first Sunday of every month.
