“Her Parents Named Her Jezebel!”

by Doug Kashorek

This is what my late wife, an elementary general music teacher at that time, said quite a few years ago when she came home from the first day of school and saw her class lists. It made sense. In previous generations, even among those who had very little biblical knowledge of this name, calling someone a “Jezebel” was to accuse them of being sexually immoral. But, as that knowledge dwindled even further and the stigma of sexual immorality lessened—was even celebrated within the culture—the negative connotation associated with it disappeared until it sounded like a nice name to the poor girl’s parents.

Jezebel, of course, was Ahab’s wife, the wicked queen of the Northern Kingdom. She was the one who conspired to kill Naboth to steal his vineyard and made even Elijah, the LORD’s prophet, flee for his life after he had her 450 prophets of Baal and 400 of Asherah put to death. And, when Jehu, fresh from assassinating Jezebel’s reigning son, came, the queen mother, instead of mourning or pleading for her life, “painted her eyes and adorned her head” to seduce him ... but found that her wiles had quite literally gone to the dogs.

That was not the end of her, however, as in the first century Jesus tells the church in Thyatira that “you tolerate that woman Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess and is teaching and seducing my servants to practice sexual immorality and to eat food sacrificed to idols” Revelation 2:20. Not all there but like a mold that grows and spreads, the church had to be remediated from its sin. Jesus speaks to the unsullied and exhorts them, “Only hold fast what you have until I come.”

Many in the Lord’s church today can identify with the faithful in Thyatira. We have seen the culture and some even in the church become not just accepting of Jezebel’s seductions but antagonistic towards those who don’t fall for her ploys. Truth is outdated, the gospel restrictive. Salvation is opened and offered to anyone regardless of belief or behavior.

Are you holding fast?
