

A Glimpse Of My Neighborhood

Geoffrey Njoroge - Meru, Kenya

June/July 2016

...near our Market-place Gate

People at a political rally

- ◆ This being a campaign season, such Gatherings are common.
- ◆ About 75% of the Meru population are Catholics.

Traders at the Market place.

...selling Cassava and unripe bananas.

At the Market place

...traders selling fruits, vegetables, and second hand clothes.

Common means of transportation

us
place.

o
o

...people are moved from place to place for a fee

(N)

...others use wheel barrows for transport

...others use bicycles or their shoulders to move stuff

...while others walk around selling their trade items

...locally made trade items on display

...men at work

...they heat and beat iron to make iron tools

...a lone carpenter at work

...cabbages for sale

...plenty of bananas and oranges

...there are all kinds of road users

...and overtaking is at will!

...the town garbage collectors'
track

...actually it's a tractor.

...a friend splitting firewood

Be blessed and,
